St. Louis' American League Team. "St. Louis will not only have an American League team in 1902, but will have one that will finish one, two or three in the pennant race," said James McAleer, former manager of the Cleveland American League club, who arrived at St. Louis yesterday. "The club will be composed of the pick of the players of the Milwaukee American League club, strengthened by material from the National and other leagues.'

National League Players Want More

A movement entirely independent of the Players' Protective Association has been inaugurated by members of the National League teams against club owners for the purpose of compelling an increase of salaries. Contracts for 1902, it is said, will not be signed until the demands of players are Croker Signs Jockey McGinn. Richard Croker has engaged Jockey J. McGinn to ride his horses in England for two seasons. The terms were agreed upon recently, and McGinn consented to go to England and begin riding early next spring. The reason assigned for Mr. Croker's engagement of McGinn is that Johnny Reiff, who, with his brother, Lester, has been rid-ing Mr. Croker's horses in England, will ride in France next year.

Jeffries and Ruhlin Will Meet November 19. November 19 has been agreed upon as the date for the Jeffries-Ruhlin fight in San Francisco. Jeffries has posted his $2,500 forfeit and nothing remains but the selection of a referee. It is generally understood that Harry Corbett will be chosen if he can be prevailed upon to accept.

Tim Hogarty, the Australian, has agreed to meet "Kid" Lavigne.

Fought to a Draw. LOS ANGELES, Cal., October 10.-Joe Bernstein and Bill de Coursey fought a twenty-round draw here last night. They mixed it from start to finish, and at times the infighting resembled a rough and tum-ble affair. De Coursey was a little fresher at the finish, but Bernstein did a trifle more damage.

Want Time Allowance Waived. Several of the leading Clyde yachtsmen, when interviewed regarding the result of the recent cup races between Columbia and Shamrock II, agreed that until the British design a boat that will smoothly ride the swell off Sandy Hook there is little chance of lifting the America's cup. Shamrock I, they say, is better suited for snamrock 1, they say, is better suited for cup weather than her successor, as she sailed higher in the wind. The present challenger's great overhang, they agree, accounted for her pounding the waves. Her keel position, too, was faulty. The Americans, the yachtsmen say, in order to encourage a new challenge should waive the time allowance.

Started at the same moment and their balloons rose rapidly to a high altitude before the parachutes were cut loose. Litch-field's balloon ascended about 200 feet higher than did Stevens, deciding the race in his favor.

Morris Park Races. At the Morris Park faces yesterday only wo favorites were successful, these being Charawind, at 6 to 5, and Femesole, at 13 to 5. Charawind won the autumn hurdle race cleverly from the Driver, an added starter. These two had the issue between them after the first mile and were all alone at the end, as Captain January, who finished third, was twenty lengths back. Femesole only had a good exercise gallop to win the Hurricane stakes.

Racing at St. Louis Fair Ground. Meditation, at generous odds, captured the feature event at the St. Louis fair grounds yesterday, a five and a half furlong sprint for two-year-olds. Dale got by Boralma, and regarded as the trotting Meditation off well and, negotiating the heavy going in splendid style, the filly won hands down by three lengths from Hun-tressa, who was the same distance in front of Ethylene. Brulare, the top-heavy fa-vorite in the fifth face, easily succumbed to Fitzkanet. Siddons was the only fa-vorite to earn a bracket, the other winners turning up in three second choices, one third choice and one outsider.

Bowling League Directors Meet. At a meeting of the board of directors of the District of Columbia Bowling League last night the committee on alleys reported that three of the six alleys were in good condition. Improvements will have to be made. An amendment to the rules was adopted providing that an umpire may suspend a player at the end of the series in which he is engaged in playing, the matter then to be taken up by the board of directors.

Spanish Claims Commission.

The Spanish treaty claims commission met informally yesterday and discussed regulations to be formulated covering the taking of testimony by the commissioners appointed some time ago. All of the members were present except Commissioner Diekema. Daily sessions will be held hereaf-ter. November 20 has been fixed as the date for the hearing of a motion to dismiss the cases growing out of the sinking of the Maine for want of jurisdiction. The amount of plains of all kinds filed with the commission is $57.581.807. Of this amount $1,890,000 is on account of deaths resulting from the sinking of the Maine and $135,000 on account of injuries received

It was said at the Navy Department that the reports of misconduct on the part of Captain Tilley, the naval governor of Tutuila, have emanated for the most part from Samoan missionaries. Rear Admiral Silas Casey will proceed to Tutuila aboard his flagship, the Wisconsin, and personally investigate the charges preferred against the captain. Navy Department officials are very loath to believe the stories of unbe-

Recedes From Its Contention Regarding Russian Sugar. A despatch from Baltimore yesterday says: The United States circuit court today took under advisement the famous case involving the levy of a countervailing duty on Russian sugar imported into this country, argument in behalf of the National Association of Manufacturers, who had entered a protest against the duty, being completed by E. H. Bigelow of New York. The argument of yesterday and today brought out the fact that the sugar trust had changed front in the matter. This is believed to be due to the conflict with the beet sugar interests now going on. The case, which is being made a test case, is that of Robert E. Downs, an importer of this city. He was among the first to pay the countervailing duty under pro-test and he appealed the case from the decision of the board of general appraisers in New York, which had sustained the position of the Treasury Department. At the outset it was ascertained that the sugar trust urged the treasury officials to impose the countervailing duty, whereas now the trust has gone over to the other side.

The sugar trust people had a legal representative here during the trial, and this same attorney was very active in the matter at previous hearings, and on this occasion appeared to be seeking for points to show that the treasury's standpoint was wrong. The sugar trust has given the de-fendants to understand that henceforth it will not be instrumental in establishing the fact that Russian sugar is subject to a countervailing duty. The position of the sugar trust has been reversed, and it is now ready to ally itself with the National Association of Manufacturers in having the courts decide that Russian sugar is not subject to an additional duty.

Plea for Individuality. From the Boston Home Journal.

Whatever we have to be thankful for in these days no student of history can fail to notice the marked decline in individuality. Of course there is always danger in comparing one epoch with another that we shall magnify the good of the past and minimize the good of the present. Nevertheless there are cases in which the facts are fairly clear. Such is the case in the matter of individuality. The concentrated life of the day is against individuality, and we certainly look in vain for a large number of striking characters. All men seem to run in one mold and are slaves to convention. Look about in the various fields of human endeavor. How many will you find in any one calling who stand out from their fellows? Take the newspaper world for example. Not so many years ago such men as Horace Greeley seemed the rule. Their leading articles bore the unmistak-able impress of their own minds. With the press today are devoid of personality. Few know who the writers are and even fewer care to know. In almost any even fewer care to know. In almost any waik of life it is the same. Such a situation is by no means desirable, and society inevitably suffers. The individual withers and the certain result must be that the world will wither. We need at the present day men who know their own minds, who are willing and even eager to speak what
